Information notice on the processing of personal data for the participants in selective procedures for the staff recruitment

Under Article 13 of Regulation EU 2016/679 ("Regulation" from now on), this factsheet describes the personal data processing terms referring to selective procedures for the staff recruitment of the Istituto Zooprofilattico Sperimentale dell'Abruzzo e del Molise "G. Caporale" ("Institute" from now on).

1. The identity and the contact details of the data controller

The data controller will be the legal representative of the Institute located in Teramo (I), Campo Boario, 64100, segreteria@izs.it, protocollo@pec.izs.it, +39 08613321.

2. Subject matter of the processing

The processing concerns the personal data of the participants taking part in selective procedures for the staff recruitment, requested or communicated to the Institute exclusively for legal and contractual requirements related.

3. Purpose of the processing

Personal data collected will be processed for following purposes:

- a) Pursuing a legitimate interest of the Institute (ref. art. 6 par. 1, lett. F) – Regulation).

Candidates are obligated to transfer data to the Institute for the purposes above mentioned. Therefore, any refusal to provide them, in whole or in part, could prevent the Institute from the execution of the contract or from the appropriate fulfilment of all the requirements related to selective procedures.

On the occasion of such processing, the Institute could be informed of certain categories of personal data (sensitive information) placed to reveal for example the state of health, the membership to a trade union, the party allegiances or religious beliefs. Such data will be processed exclusively by personnel in charge and in line with the Regulation requirements.

If the data controller intends to process personal data for a different purpose than the one for which the data were collected, before this processing he provides the interested party with all the informations regarding this different purpose and any further pertinent information.

4. Communication and dissemination of data

The personal data provided will be subject to communication and/or dissemination exclusively for the fulfilment of obligations laid down by the law.

5. Processing terms

Personal data will be processed in full compliance with the lawfulness, fairness and transparency principle.

All personal data collected for the purposes above mentioned will be processed both electronically on digital medium using the specific information systems and manually on analogic medium. In any case, the processing is made exclusively by personnel in charge. Such processing involves collection, recording, organisation, structuring, retention, adaptation or modification, extraction, consultation, use, comparison and interconnection, restriction, erasure and destruction.

6. Location of processing

Data are processed and archived, both on dedicated servers and in hard copy, at the headquarters of Institute and at any other operational headquarters, even temporary and concerning other parties. Data could be also processed, on behalf of the Institute, by external professional figures and/or by subjects involved in technical, developmental, managerial and accounting-administrative activities and for the purposes above mentioned. These figures are appointed as data controllers.

7. Terms and retention period

All data collected will be retained on both analogue and/or digital media, in accordance with the retention rules about the accounting and administrative documentation.

8. Rights of data subjects

At any time data subjects have the right to ask the data controller for accessing their personal data, confirming such data exist, to know the content, the origin and the processing terms (art. 15 of Regulation), to request the rectification (art. 16 of Regulation), the erasure (art. 17 of Regulation), the limitation (art. 18 of Regulation), the notification (art. 19 of Regulation) and the portability (art. 20 of Regulation).

9. Right to object

Applicant, at any time and for reasons connected with his/her particular situation, has the right to object (ref. Art. 21 Regulation) to the processing of personal data concerning him/her, in compliance with art. 6 par. 1 lett. F) of Regulation.

10. Right to complain

Data subjects who consider that their personal data are processed in breach of what is foreseen by the Regulation, have the right to lodge a complaint to the Data Protection Supervisor or to start judicial proceedings.

For any other information and/or technical insight about the applicable legislation concerning the data protection, the Supervisory Authority website can be consulted at the following link:

www.garanteprivacy.it

11. Data Protection Officer

The related request should be made by contacting the Data Protection Officer of the Institute (dpo@izs.it, dpo@pec.izs.it, +39 0861 3321).
